101 CONCERNING ALS AWARENESS MONTH.

1 WHEREAS, Amyotrophic lateral sclerosis, also commonly known
2 as Lou Gehrig's disease or ALS, is a progressive, fatal neurodegenerative
3 disease in which a person's brain loses connection with their muscles, 4 slowly reducing a person's ability to walk, talk, eat, and eventually 5 breathe; and

6 WHEREAS, Thousands of new ALS cases are reported every year, 7 and estimates show that every 90 minutes, someone is diagnosed with 8 ALS and someone passes away from ALS; and

9 WHEREAS, On average, patients diagnosed with ALS survive
10 only two to five years from the time of diagnosis; and

11 WHEREAS, The exact causes of ALS are unknown, although a 12 small percentage of cases are hereditary, and there is no known cure for 13 ALS; and

14 WHEREAS, People who have served in the military are more
15 likely to develop ALS and die from the disease than those with no history

1 of military service; and

2 WHEREAS, Securing access to new therapies, durable medical 3 equipment, and communication technologies is of vital importance to 4 people living with ALS; and

5 WHEREAS, Clinical trials play a pivotal role in evaluating new 6 treatments, enhancing quality of life, and fostering assistive technologies 7 for those living with ALS; and

8 WHEREAS, Multidisciplinary care clinics improve survival rates
9 by providing comprehensive care for patients with ALS. Clinic care
10 includes neurology, pulmonology, nutrition, physical therapy, 11 occupational therapy, social work, and palliative care; and

12 WHEREAS, The ALS Association is the largest philanthropic 13 funder of ALS research globally and has committed more than $154
14 million to support more than 550 projects across the United States and 18 15 other countries; and

16 WHEREAS, The ALS United Rocky Mountain organization
17 provides Colorado, Wyoming, and Utah support for several 18 multidisciplinary ALS clinics, including those throughout Colorado
19 offered by National Jewish Health and the University of Colorado
20 Anschutz Medical Campus; and

21 WHEREAS, The ALS Association and other nonprofit
22 organizations are committed to making ALS livable and curing it for 23 everyone, everywhere; and

24 WHEREAS, ALS Awareness Month provides an opportunity to 25 increase public awareness of the dire circumstances of people living with 26 ALS and acknowledge the terrible impact this disease has on those 27 individuals and their families. Most importantly, it can help provide 28 support for research to eradicate this disease and for multidisciplinary 29 ALS clinics to administer comprehensive care for patients with ALS; and

30 WHEREAS, Patients with ALS have incredible courage and 31 inspire their families, caregivers, and the community at large; now, 32 therefore,
