

AMPLIFY Act: Payment Choice and Recipient Control

Legislating Drafter Working Package — 33-bill modular AMPLIFY build Legislating drafter file. This chapter draft is designed to stand on its own and to support modular insertion into broader AMPLIFY stacks.

Bill 24. AMPLIFY Act: Payment Choice and Recipient Control

Single subject. Recipient election of payment timing and related beneficiary-control rules.

Purpose. Pull payout timing into a clean standalone chapter.

Draft structure

Section	Core draft direction
1. Short title	This act shall be known and may be cited as the “AMPLIFY Act: Payment Choice and Recipient Control”.
2. Legislative declaration	The general assembly finds and declares that pull payout timing into a clean standalone chapter.
3. Definitions	Definitions should be alphabetized, lowercase, and drafted in singular form unless a term of art requires otherwise.
4. Operative sections	Substantive rights, duties, approvals, or restrictions listed below.
5. Administration	Rulemaking, designation of administering authority, records, notices, and implementation mechanics.
6. Construction	Independent operation, severability, no implied repeal, and other necessary construction clauses.
7. Effective date	Effective date and any conditional clause required by filing strategy.

Draft definitions

eligible recipient. a person lawfully entitled to a direct payment under this framework.

distribution year. the period established by rule for recipient payment elections.

Draft operative provisions

Section 4. Election right

- An eligible recipient may elect to receive a payment on a monthly, quarterly, or annual basis where such options are authorized by law or rule.
- A default distribution schedule may apply until the recipient makes a valid election.

Section 5. Administration

- The administering authority may establish open-election periods, hardship conversion rules, and protected-beneficiary default rules by rule.

Required construction clauses

- Independent operation. This act operates independently and remains effective whether or not any related measure or companion act is adopted.

- Severability. If any provision of this act or its application is held invalid, the invalidity does not affect other provisions or applications that can be given effect without the invalid provision or application.
- Single-subject construction. This act shall be construed to embrace only the single subject described in its title and no separate subject shall be inferred from a remedy, definition, recordkeeping duty, funding mechanism, or construction clause that is necessarily and properly connected to that subject.
- Revenue and fee construction. Any money authorized by this act shall be construed and administered only in the manner and to the extent permitted by applicable constitutional and statutory limitations.

Annex and Effective-Date Integration

Annex incorporation

Annex A to this measure contains payment-election forms, assignment disclosures, revocation forms, and market-supervision templates.

The annex may standardize forms and disclosures but may not authorize assignments prohibited by this measure.

Effective date and implementation

This measure takes effect on the date declared by law following approval; except that any regulated secondary assignment market may not begin until disclosure forms, cooling-off rules, and protected-account standards are published.

Basic payment-timing elections may begin earlier if the administering authority certifies administrative readiness.
