Summary of Legislation

This bill repeals and relocates various sections of the higher education statutes relating to the military, military dependants, and veterans so that they are located in the same article with the higher education provisions relating to the military, whenever practicable. The bill does not make substantive changes to the relocated statutes. These include general provisions relating to the military, provisions relating to in-state tuition classification, and provisions related to financial assistance.

Assessment of No Fiscal Impact

The bill makes no substantive changes to law. It merely repeals and relocates statutes and will not change the revenue, expenditures, or workload of any state agency, local government, or institution of higher education. For these reasons the bill is assessed as having no fiscal impact.

Effective Date

The bill was signed into law by the Governor and took effect on April 9, 2018.
