Summary of Legislation

The bill updates portions of the statutes governing the Tony Grampsas Youth Services Program (TGYS) to reflect current practices, including changes to definitions, eligibility details, and member criteria for the TGYS board. Additionally, the bill allows unexpended and unencumbered funds deposited to the Youth Services Program Cash Fund, the Youth Mentoring Services Cash Fund, the Student Dropout Prevention and Intervention Cash Fund, and the Before and After School Project Cash Fund to be available for expenditure the following fiscal year without additional appropriation.

Background

The Division of Child Welfare within the Department of Human Services administers the Tony Grampsas Youth Services Program, which provides funding to community-based organizations that serve children, youth, and their families. The programs offered include prevention and intervention of youth crime and violence, youth drug and alcohol use, child abuse and neglect, and high school dropout. Eligible Tony Grampsas Youth Services Program applicants include local governments, schools, nonprofit organizations, state agencies, and institutions of higher education.

Assessment of No Fiscal Impact

This bill updates portions of statute governing the Tony Grampsas Youth Services Program to reflect current practices in the Department of Human Services. Therefore, the bill is assessed as having no fiscal impact

Effective Date

The bill takes effect upon signature of the Governor, or upon becoming law without his signature.
