Training for all personnel must include both an initial training requirement as well as an ongoing annual continuing education requirement as follows:

- Six initial hours of training on domestic violence and its traumatic effects on children, adults, and families;

1 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Colorado:

2 SECTION 1. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly
3 finds and declares that:

4 (a) Approximately 15 million children are exposed each year to 5 domestic violence or child abuse, which are often linked;

6 (b) Child sexual abuse is significantly under-documented and 7 under-addressed in the legal system; and

8 (c) Child abuse is a major public health issue in the United States,
9 with total lifetime estimated financial costs associated with just one year
10 of confirmed cases of child maltreatment, including physical abuse, 11 sexual abuse, psychological abuse, and neglect, amounting to 12 approximately $124 billion.

13 (2) The general assembly further finds that:

14 (a) Exposure to domestic violence is a leading cause of adverse 15 childhood experiences;

16 (b) Research confirms that allegations of domestic violence, child
17 abuse, and child sexual abuse are often discounted when raised in child 18 custody litigation, even when credible claims of abuse are presented in 19 court;

20 (c) Research shows that abusive parents are often granted custody

1 or unprotected parenting time by courts, placing children at ongoing risk;

2 (d) Research confirms that a child's risk of abuse increases after 3 a perpetrator of domestic violence separates from a domestic partner,
4 even when the perpetrator has not previously abused the child;

5 (e) Researchers have documented a minimum of 735 children
6 murdered in the United States since 2008 by a parent involved in a 7 divorce, separation, custody, visitation, or child support proceeding, often 8 after access was provided by family courts over the objections of a 9 protective parent;

10 (f) Scientifically unsound theories are frequently applied to reject
11 parents' and children's reports of abuse;

12 (g) In cases involving allegations of domestic violence, child 13 abuse, and child sexual abuse, courts should rely on the assistance of 14 third-party professionals only when the professionals possess the proper 15 experience or expertise for assessing domestic violence, child abuse, child
16 sexual abuse, and trauma, and when the professionals apply scientifically 17 sound and evidence-based theories; and

18 (h) Custody litigation involving domestic violence, child abuse,
19 and child sexual abuse allegations is sometimes prohibitively expensive,
20 resulting in parental bankruptcy as a result of court-mandated payments 21 to appointed fee-paid professionals, in addition to attorney fees, and 22 excessive civil action, especially regarding custody, is a documented 23 tactic of domestic offenders to control and harass the victim after 24 separation.

25 (3) The general assembly therefore declares that:

26 (a) Child safety is the first priority of custody and parenting
27 adjudications, and courts should resolve safety risks and claims of

1 domestic violence, child abuse, and child sexual abuse first as a
2 fundamental consideration in determining the best interests of the child
3 before assessing other best interest factors;

4 (b) Domestic violence is an important factor for courts to consider
5 when making decisions related to parenting time and parental
6 responsibilities;

7 (c) All evidence admitted in custody and parenting adjudications
8 should be subject to evidentiary admissibility standards;

9 (d) Evidence from a court-affiliated or appointed fee-paid
10 professional regarding allegations of domestic violence, child abuse, and 11 child sexual abuse in custody cases should be admitted only when the 12 professional has undergone proper and regular training, including training 13 on the effects of domestic abuse, child abuse, and child sexual abuse, and 14 the professional possesses documented expertise and experience in the 15 relevant types of abuse, trauma, and the behaviors of victims and 16 perpetrators; and

17 (e) All professional groups involved in parenting time and 18 parental responsibilities evaluations, including child and family
19 investigators, parenting coordinators, parent responsibility evaluators,
20 decision makers, family court facilitators, and judges and magistrates,
21 need to have appropriate and ongoing training in domestic violence,
22 coercive control, and related issues.

23 SECTION 2. In Colorado Revised Statutes, 13-22-311, amend (1)
24 as follows:

25 13-22-311. Court referral to mediation - duties of mediator.

26 (1) Any court of record may, in its discretion, refer any case for 27 mediation services or dispute resolution programs, subject to the

1 availability of mediation services or dispute resolution programs; except 2 that the court shall not refer the case to mediation services or dispute
3 resolution programs where one of the parties claims that ~~it~~ THE PARTY has 4 been the victim of physical or psychological abuse by the other party, AT 5 ANY TIME AND REGARDLESS OF PRIOR PARTICIPATION, and states that ~~it~~
6 THE PARTY is thereby unwilling to enter into mediation services or dispute
7 resolution programs. In addition, the court may exempt from referral any 8 case in which a party files with the court, within five days of a referral
9 order, a motion objecting to mediation and demonstrating compelling
10 reasons why mediation should not be ordered. Compelling reasons may 11 include, but are not limited to, that the costs of mediation would be higher 12 than the requested relief and previous attempts to resolve the issues were 13 not successful. Parties referred to mediation services or dispute resolution 14 programs may select said services or programs from mediators or 15 mediation organizations or from the office of dispute resolution. This 16 section shall not apply in any civil action where injunctive or similar 17 equitable relief is the only remedy sought.

18 SECTION 3. In Colorado Revised Statutes, 14-10-116, amend
