Summary of Legislation

This bill requires the Colorado Department of Transportation (CDOT) to contract with a private sector expert to review the dispute review board stage of the process used to resolve contractual disputes between CDOT and contractors. By December 15, 2022, the contractor must provide CDOT with a report that includes results from the review as well as recommendations for best practices and improvements. CDOT and the contractor must present the report in the department's SMART Act presentation. CDOT is also required to convene a committee of a contractor, department staff, and legislative members to oversee the work.

State Expenditures

The bill increases state cash fund expenditures in CDOT by $170,000 in FY 2022-23 from the State Highway Fund. Expenditures are shown in Table 2 and detailed below.

Table 2
Expenditures Under SB 22-048

	FY 2022-23	FY 2023-24
Department of Transportation
Contract Drafting and Execution	$25,000	-
Contract Administration	$15,000	-
Contract Consultant Costs	$130,000	-
Total Cost	$170,000	-

Contracting costs. In FY 2022-23 only, this bill increases expenditures in CDOT by $170,000 to contract with a private sector expert to review and report on the dispute review board stage of the department's contract dispute process. These costs include creation and execution of the contract, administering the contract, and costs paid to the contractor to complete the review and report. Additionally, this bill requires CDOT to convene a committee to oversee the contractor while they conduct the review and write their report. This work can be accomplished within existing appropriations.

Effective Date

This bill was postponed indefinitely by the Senate State, Veterans, and Military Affairs Committee on February 15, 2022.
