Summary of Legislation

The bill clarifies that nonprofit organizations renting space to political campaigns at their customary rates is not considered direct or indirect support of the political campaign. Additionally, the bill allows for injunctive relief in public accommodation discrimination cases and sets the penalty at $3,500 per violation.

Assessment of No Fiscal Impact

The bill clarifies conduct by nonprofits with regards to renting space to political campaigns, and conforms remedies for public accommodation discrimination cases with those available in other types of discrimination cases. These changes are not expected to have a tangible impact on the overall number of discrimination cases filed. For this reason, it is assessed as having no fiscal impact on state or local government revenues or expenditures.

Effective Date

The bill was signed into law by the Governor on May 22, 2024, and takes effect on August 7, 2024, assuming no referendum petition is filed.
