	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> State Expenditure	<input type="checkbox"/> TABOR Refund	<input type="checkbox"/> Statutory Public Entity

The bill modifies statutory reporting requirements for certain state departments. It minimally increases state workload in FY 2024-25 and minimally decreases state workload on an ongoing basis.

Appropriation Summary: No appropriation is required.

Fiscal Note Status: This revised fiscal note reflects the reengrossed bill.

Summary of Legislation

The bill modifies statutory reporting requirements for several state agencies (see State and Local Government Contacts section) by eliminating certain reports, changing where certain reports must be posted, consolidating certain reports, updating certain report schedules, decreasing the frequency of certain reports, and changing the scope of certain reports.

State Expenditures

The bill minimally increases state workload for affected agencies in FY 2024-25 to update reporting processes and consolidate certain reports. The bill minimally decreases state workload on an ongoing basis by reducing or eliminating data collection and analysis for mandated reports. No change in appropriations is required.

Effective Date

The bill takes effect upon signature of the Governor, or upon becoming law without his signature.
