Summary of Legislation

The bill designates the Agaricus julius, or Emperor mushroom, as the state mushroom of Colorado.

State Expenditures

The bill minimally increases workload and costs in the Legislative Department and Department of Personnel, as discussed below.

Legislative Department

Legislative Council Staff will update brochures and plaques for official state symbols and emblems that are currently on display in the State Capitol in Mr. Brown's Attic. Brochures will be updated during the next reprint order, and a plaque recognizing the Agaricus julius mushroom will be installed. These expenses are absorbable within existing resources.

Department of Personnel

The Colorado State Archives will obtain a photograph of the Agaricus julius mushroom and display it on their website. This additional workload is minimal.

Effective Date

The bill takes effect 90 days following adjournment of the General Assembly sine die, assuming no referendum petition is filed.
