TO: Senate Local Government & Housing RESEND: 3-35-26 TO: House Transportation Housing& Local Governments Committee RE: HB26-1095 Digital Public Legal Notice Sponsors: Suckla FROM: Jeany Rush, Colorado Constituent, 2-25-26 Vote: NO Your words: "Current law requires a county or municipality to publish legal notices in a physical print newspaper. The bill gives a county or municipality discretion to publish legal notices online on the newspaper's website instead. Legal notices published online must be free to access and cannot be kept behind a paywall or subscription." Alot of good that discretion would have given the flood victims in Asheville, and east coast, or the Hawaii fire victims. There are many elderly, or low income folks who have no access to computers, online digital, etc. This is more prevalent since the travesty of the last 5 years. Further, it would be a discrimination to not also provide some sort of paper, print medium, in hard copy form, not an online digital format of a newspaper.

	Those folks should not be punished if they cannot gain access to a digital form. It looks like it should still exist in both digital and paper/hardcopy! Everyone is running TOO FAST, TOO FURIOUS, AND WAY WAY TO "AI" "BIRD IN HAND IS WORTH TWO IN THE BUSH"
