Sections 2 and 4 of the bill require:

- ! A statement on applications for registration by a paid solicitor to the secretary of state that neither the paid solicitor nor any officer, director or employee serves on the board of directors of a charitable organization or directs the operations of a charitable organization for which the paid solicitor solicits contributions and that no officer, director, or employee of the paid solicitor's charitable organization clients have a financial interest in the paid solicitor;
- ! Paid solicitors to either have a bond or a savings account, deposit, or certificate of deposit in a financial institution payable to the state of Colorado conditioned upon the performance of the paid solicitor in good faith without fraud or fraudulent representation and without the violation of any provision of the "Colorado Charitable Solicitations Act".

Section 3 of the bill makes it charitable fraud to misrepresent that a charitable organization for which a paid solicitor solicits has a significant membership of a certain type, such as active police, sheriff, patrol, firefighters, first responders, or veterans. Section 3 of the bill makes a charitable organization also liable with a paid solicitor if the charitable organization knew or should have known that the paid solicitor was engaged in charitable fraud on behalf of the charitable organization.
