The bill makes various technical changes to modernize, correct, and improve elections laws.

Statutory citations to the federal "National Voter Registration Act of 1993", "Help America Vote Act of 2002" (HAVA), "Voting Rights Act of 1965", "Uniformed and Overseas Citizens Absentee Voting Act" (UOCAVA), "Military and Overseas Voter Empowerment Act", and the "Voting Accessibility for the Elderly and Handicapped Act" are corrected to reflect recent relocations of those laws to a new title 52 of the United States Code (sections 1, 2, 4, 5, 19, 20, 22, 24, 51, 53 to 58, and 65 of the bill).

To reflect modern elections administration, the term "registration book" is replaced with references to the statewide voter registration system, commonly referred to as SCORE (sections 1, 3, 13, 16, 17, 18, 25 to 36, 44, 47, 59, 60, and 66 to 70). As a result of these statutory amendments, additional adjustments are made to adapt the use of SCORE in cases where annexation results in a change of precinct boundaries (section 17) and to criminalize the unauthorized tampering with SCORE (section 70).

The term "identification" is amended to exclude state drivers' licenses issued to noncitizens (section 1).

Obsolete references to election commissions (sections 2 and 82) and passed deadlines (sections 19, 43, 52, and 63) are removed.

The HAVA complaint procedure, recently held to conflict with federal law with respect to standing, is aligned with the federal act (section 6).

Sections 7 and 81 effect relocation of a provision pertaining to additional identification that must be supplied by first-time voter registrants.

Similar to current law regarding the timeliness of voter registration, the time allotted to change or withdraw affiliation is extended to the next business day when the deadline falls on a weekend day or holiday (sections 8 and 15).

Duplicative and inconsistent provisions relating to voter registration timeliness, application information required, and affirmations made by persons registering to vote are addressed (sections 8 to 12, 21, and 23).

Current law requires voter registration records to be maintained until after the next general election. Under section 18, county clerks and recorders are authorized to destroy paper voter registration records after digitally storing them in SCORE. Section 18 also clarifies that such records are public and are subject to examination by any person, whereas current law limits such examination to electors.

Currently, the secretary of state is required to generate a postelection list of voters to review potential instances of double voting. Section 21 shifts this duty to county clerks and recorders, and requires county clerks and recorders to report to the appropriate district attorneys the names of persons who are suspected to have voted more than once.

Because modern technology renders it obsolete, section 37 repeals the ability of counties to request a waiver from the requirement that their voter service and polling centers have secure computer access.

To accommodate electors not voting in person, section 45 allows a designated election official to post write-in candidate names on the official website of the designated election official.

Section 46 deletes the requirement that the secretary of state publish notice of a random audit in a newspaper of general circulation.

With respect to mail ballot elections, section 53:

- ! Repeals provisions governed by the "Colorado Local Government Election Code";
- ! Removes redundant notice requirements;
- ! Allows counties to mail ballots prior to 22 days before an election; and
- ! Clarifies that certain provisions apply to all new registrants, rather than only new registrants who effected registration by mail.

Section 82 repeals obsolete or superfluous provisions pertaining to:

- ! The process of sending voter information cards;
- ! The provision through which every UOCAVA-covered voter may apply to receive a ballot; and
- ! The prohibition of adding elector names after the close of voter registration prior to an election.
