Bill Summary

(Note: This summary applies to this bill as introduced and does not reflect any amendments that may be subsequently adopted. If this bill passes third reading in the house of introduction, a bill summary that applies to the reengrossed version of this bill will be available at <http://www.leg.state.co.us/billsummaries>.)

Under current law, in a parent-child termination proceeding, the office of the state court administrator receives money to pay for an indigent parent to retain one expert witness and to obtain a transcript of the trial. Since the responsibility for retaining counsel for indigent parents in such cases is now handled by the office of the respondent parents' counsel, under the bill, money is appropriated to that office to pay such expenses.

Shading denotes HOUSE amendment. Double underlining denotes SENATE amendment.
Capital letters indicate new material to be added to existing statute.
