Summary of Legislation

This bill changes "Columbus Day" to "Indigenous Peoples' Day" in all parts of statute that list legal holidays observed by the state.

State Expenditures

This bill may require some state agencies and higher education institutions to update their materials or websites to reflect the holiday name change. Any expenditure increase is expected to be minimal and does not require an increase in appropriations to any state entity.

Local Government Impact

This bill may require local governments to make the same updates to materials or websites. Any impact is expected to be minimal.

Effective Date

The bill was postponed indefinitely on April 25, 2016, by the House State, Veterans, and Military Affairs Committee.
