Summary of Legislation

The bill requires the State Auditor to conduct postaudits and performance audits of the limited gaming funds that are transferred to the State Historical Fund for the preservation and restoration of the gaming cities of Central, Black Hawk, and Cripple Creek. The audits must include:

- how the cities are spending the distributions and whether the funds are being used for preservation and restoration; and
- whether the cities have adopted standards for the distribution of grants, as defined in current law.

The State Auditor must conduct three audits, no later than September 1, 2017, September 1, 2022, and September 1, 2027. The bill's requirements are in addition to the State Auditor's current duty to examine annual audits submitted by each local government.

Background

Limited gaming is permitted in three communities in Colorado - Central, Black Hawk, and Cripple Creek. After administrative expenses, 50 percent of limited gaming revenue is considered the state share, 10 percent goes to these three gaming cities, 12 percent to the gaming counties, and 28 percent to the State Historical Fund. Of the 28 percent that goes to the State Historical Fund, 20 percent goes to the three gaming cities for preservation and restoration in a one time annual transfer. In FY 2014-15, $4.9 million was transferred to the gaming cities from the State Historical Fund.

State Expenditures

Beginning in FY 2016-17, the bill increases the workload for the Office of State Auditor (OSA) by requiring three audits of the money distributed from the State Historical Fund for the historical preservation of gaming cities. This increase can be absorbed within OSA's existing workload and does not require additional appropriations.

Local Government Increase

To the extent that OSA requires cooperation from the three gaming cities in order to conduct the audits of gaming revenues used for historic preservation, there will be an increase in workload for those municipalities.

Effective Date

The bill was signed into law by the Governor on June 8, 2016, and takes effect August 10, 2016, assuming no referendum petition is filed.
