Bill Summary

(Note: This summary applies to this bill as introduced and does not reflect any amendments that may be subsequently adopted. If this bill passes third reading in the house of introduction, a bill summary that applies to the reengrossed version of this bill will be available at <http://leg.colorado.gov>.)

The bill implements changes to the Colorado constitution approved by voters at the 2016 general election that make it more difficult to amend the state constitution by:

- ! Prohibiting a petition for an initiated state constitutional amendment to be submitted to voters for approval or rejection unless the petition is signed by the constitutionally specified number of registered electors who reside in each state senate district and total number of registered electors; and
- ! Requiring at least 55% of the votes cast on any state constitutional amendment to adopt the amendment; except that only a simple majority of the votes cast is necessary to adopt a state constitutional amendment that only repeals in whole or in part a provision of the state constitution.

When a draft of a ballot issue that proposes a state constitutional amendment is filed with the title board, the title board must decide if the proposed constitutional amendment only repeals in whole or in part a provision of the state constitution for purposes of determining the required percentage of votes cast to adopt the amendment. The designated representatives of the proponents or any registered elector who is not satisfied with the title board's decision may appeal the decision by filing a motion for rehearing to the title board. Decisions of the title board at the rehearing on this issue may be directly appealed to the Colorado supreme court in the same manner as ballot title and fiscal impact abstract appeals.

The bill requires the secretary of state to notify proponents of a petition for an initiated state constitutional amendment of the number and boundaries of the state senate districts in existence and the number of registered electors in each state senate district at the time the petition format is approved. The secretary of state must validate signatures on a petition for an initiated state constitutional amendment by random sampling. If the random sample establishes that the number of valid signatures is 90% or less of the total number of registered electors needed to declare the petition sufficient, the secretary of state is required to deem the petition to be not sufficient. If the random sample establishes that the number of valid signatures is more than 90% of the total number of registered electors needed to declare the petition sufficient, the secretary of state is required to order the examination of each signature filed.

After the examination of a petition for an initiated constitutional amendment, the secretary of state is required to issue a statement as to whether a sufficient number of valid signatures from each state senate district and a sufficient total number of valid signatures appear to have been submitted to certify the petition to the ballot. If the secretary of state declares that the petition appears not to have either a sufficient number of valid signatures from each state senate district, a sufficient total number of valid signatures, or both, the secretary of state's statement shall specify the number of sufficient and insufficient signatures from each state senate district, the total number of sufficient or insufficient signatures, or both, as applicable. The bill allows the proponents of the petition to cure an insufficiency of signatures in one or more state senate districts, the total valid signatures, or both, as applicable.

1 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Colorado:

2 SECTION 1. In Colorado Revised Statutes, 1-40-106, add (3.5)
3 as follows:

4 1-40-106. Title board - meetings - ballot title - initiative and
5 referendum. (3.5) FOR EVERY PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT,
6 THE TITLE BOARD SHALL DETERMINE WHETHER THE PROPOSED
7 CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT ONLY REPEALS IN WHOLE OR IN PART A
8 PROVISION OF THE STATE CONSTITUTION FOR PURPOSES OF SECTION 1
9 (4)(b) OF ARTICLE V OF THE STATE CONSTITUTION. THE SECRETARY OF
10 STATE SHALL KEEP A RECORD OF THE DETERMINATION MADE BY THE TITLE
11 BOARD.

12 SECTION 2. In Colorado Revised Statutes, 1-40-107, amend
13 (1)(b) and (2); and add (1)(a)(III) as follows:

14 1-40-107. Rehearing - appeal - fees - signing. (1) (a) (III) THE
15 DESIGNATED REPRESENTATIVES OF THE PROPONENTS OR ANY REGISTERED
16 ELECTOR WHO IS NOT SATISFIED WITH THE DETERMINATION BY THE TITLE

1 BOARD MADE PURSUANT TO SECTION 1-40-106 (3.5) WITH RESPECT TO
2 WHETHER A PETITION THAT PROPOSES A CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT
3 ONLY REPEALS IN WHOLE OR IN PART A PROVISION OF THE STATE
4 CONSTITUTION MAY FILE A MOTION FOR A REHEARING WITH THE
5 SECRETARY OF STATE WITHIN SEVEN DAYS AFTER THE TITLES AND 6 SUBMISSION CLAUSE FOR THE INITIATIVE PETITION ARE SET ON THE
7 GROUNDS THAT THE DETERMINATION IS INCORRECT.

8 (b) A motion for rehearing must be typewritten and set forth with 9 particularity the grounds for rehearing. If the motion claims that the 10 petition contains more than a single subject, then the motion must, at a
11 minimum, include a short and plain statement of the reasons for the claim.
12 If the motion claims that the title and submission clause set by the title
13 board are unfair or that they do not fairly express the true meaning and 14 intent of the proposed state law or constitutional amendment, then the 15 motion must identify the specific wording that is challenged. If the 16 motion claims that an estimate in the abstract is incorrect, the motion
17 must include documentation that supports a different estimate. If the 18 motion claims that the abstract is misleading or prejudicial or does not
19 comply with the statutory requirements, the motion must specifically 20 identify the specific wording that is challenged or the requirement at 21 issue. The title board may modify the abstract based on information
22 presented at the rehearing. IF THE MOTION CLAIMS THAT THE
23 DETERMINATION OF WHETHER THE PETITION THAT PROPOSES A
24 CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT ONLY REPEALS IN WHOLE OR IN PART A
25 CONSTITUTIONAL PROVISION IS INCORRECT, THE MOTION MUST INCLUDE A
26 SHORT AND PLAIN STATEMENT OF THE REASONS FOR THE CLAIM.

27 (2) If any person presenting OR THE DESIGNATED

1 REPRESENTATIVES OF THE PROPONENTS OF an initiative petition for which
2 a motion for a rehearing is filed, any registered elector who filed a motion
3 for a rehearing pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, or any other
4 registered elector who appeared before the title board in support of or in 5 opposition to a motion for rehearing is not satisfied with the ruling of the 6 title board upon the motion, then the secretary of state shall furnish such 7 person, upon request, a certified copy of the petition with the titles and 8 submission clause of the proposed law or constitutional amendment, ~~or~~
9 the abstract, OR THE DETERMINATION WHETHER THE PETITION REPEALS IN 10 WHOLE OR IN PART A CONSTITUTIONAL PROVISION, together with a
11 certified copy of the motion for rehearing and of the ruling thereon. If 12 filed with the clerk of the supreme court within seven days thereafter, the 13 matter shall be disposed of promptly, consistent with the rights of the 14 parties, either affirming the action of the title board or reversing it, in 15 which latter case the court shall remand it with instructions, pointing out
16 where the title board is in error.

17 SECTION 3. In Colorado Revised Statutes, 1-40-109, amend (1)
18 as follows:

19 1-40-109. Signatures required - withdrawal. (1)(a) No petition

14 STATE SENATE DISTRICTS, OR BOTH, AS APPLICABLE, the designated 15 representatives of the proponents may cure the insufficiency by filing an 16 addendum to the original petition for the purpose of offering such number
17 of additional signatures as will cure the insufficiency. No addendum

19 requirements for petitions outlined in sections 1-40-110, 1-40-111, and
