Summary of Legislation

This bill makes various updates to the State Employees Group Benefit Act to conform with current state and federal law, remove obsolete provisions, and reflect current practices. Among its many provision, the bill:

- changes the definition of "dependent" to reflect that coverage can continue under an employee's policy until a child is age 26 and removes the requirement that a dependent child over age 19 be unmarried and enrolled as a full-time student to maintain coverage;
- removes domestic partner from the definition of "dependent" to reflect the repeal of rules allowing domestic partners as dependents;
- removes provisions referencing maximum lifetime benefits, which are prohibited under federal law;
- removes a public hearing requirement that conflicted with the state procurement code; and
- removes various obsolete provisions.

State Expenditures

This bill will result in a minimal, one-time increase in workload for the Office of Information Technology to modify certain menus and options in the state human resource information system to reflect the changes in the bill. This work can be accomplished within existing appropriations.

Effective Date

The bill takes effect August 8, 2018, if the General Assembly adjourns on May 9, 2018, as scheduled, and no referendum petition is filed.
