Improvement Act of 2018" (federal act), which removed hemp from schedule I of the federal "Controlled Substances Act". The federal act requires the United States department of agriculture (USDA) to develop a plan for the regulation of hemp and authorizes each state to seek approval from the USDA to have primary regulatory authority over hemp production within the state by preparing and submitting a state plan of regulation to the secretary of the USDA.

The bill updates the laws governing Colorado's industrial hemp regulatory program to align with the federal act and to put the department of agriculture in a position to prepare and submit a state plan to the secretary of the USDA.

1 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Colorado:

2 SECTION 1. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly
3 hereby finds and declares that:

4 (a) The hemp industry offers strong economic potential for 5 agricultural producers throughout Colorado, innovators in the 6 manufacturing space, and entrepreneurs across the country;

7 (b) Colorado leads the nation in public policy supporting the hemp 8 industry and is poised to continue that leadership with the passage of the 9 federal "Agricultural Improvement Act of 2018";

10 (c) It is the intent of the general assembly that the department of 11 agriculture, the department of public health and environment, and other 12 state agencies continue to regulate hemp in compliance with the federal 13 "Agricultural Improvement Act of 2018";

14 (d) Ensuring equitable regulation and enforcement for hemp under 15 state law will keep Colorado competitive in the hemp industry and spur 16 economic development; and

17 To ensure that Colorado continues to lead the nation in public 18 policy supporting the hemp industry, the general assembly and the 19 department of agriculture support all pathways to new hemp variety

1 development, including the development of certified seed and the support
2 of developers of new varieties of hemp seed who may choose not to enter 3 the certified seed system for their proprietary genetics.

4 SECTION 2. In Colorado Revised Statutes, 35-61-101, amend
5 (1) and (7) as follows:

6 35-61-101. Definitions. As used in this article 61, unless the
