Summary of Legislation

The bill extends the State Advisory Council for Parent Involvement in Education indefinitely. The bill also increases the number of council members by two.

Background

The State Advisory Council for Parent Involvement in Education was created in 2009 to increase parental involvement in public schools with the intent of reducing achievement gaps, decreasing the dropout rate, increasing graduation rates, and increasing the number of students who continue on to higher education. The advisory council meets to review best practices and make applicable recommendations to educators and policy makers regarding increased parent involvement in the educational process.

Advisory council members do not receive compensation, but may receive reimbursement for expenses incurred while performing their duties, which includes travel, mileage, meeting space, catering, and hotel and airfare when applicable. Council expenses average about $7,000 annually, and staff support is provided by the Family Partnership Director at the CDE.

Continuing Program Impacts

Based on the 2018 Sunset Review prepared by the Department of Regulatory Agencies (DORA) and information received from the Colorado Department of Education, the council is expected to have continuing expenses of $11,000 beginning in FY 2019-20, which includes $4,700 for member reimbursements and meeting expenses, and staff costs of about $6,400 and 0.1 FTE for the Family Partnership Director. If this bill is enacted, current expenditures will continue for the program starting in FY 2019-20. If this bill is not enacted, the program will end on July 1, 2019, and state expenditures will decrease starting in FY 2019-20 by the amounts shown in Table 1.

State Expenditures

The bill increases the number of members on the council and therefore increases annual costs for the CDE to reimburse member expenses. This additional cost is estimated at about $2,000 annually.

Effective Date

The bill takes effect upon signature of the Governor, or upon becoming law without his signature.
