Bill Topic: TIME REQUIREMENTS FOR FOOD STAMP APPEALS

Summary of Fiscal Impact: No fiscal impact. This bill allows the state Department of Human Services to promulgate rules related to food stamp appeals to comply with federal law. The bill does not affect state or local revenue, expenditures, or workload and is assessed as having no fiscal impact.

Appropriation Summary: No appropriation required.

Fiscal Note Status: This fiscal note reflects the introduced bill.

Summary of Legislation

This bill allows the state Department of Human Services (DHS) to promulgate rules to amend the length of time for Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program appeals to comply with federal law.

Assessment of No Fiscal Impact

Since federal law dictates the amount of time for appeals, it is assumed that promulgating rules to implement those changes will have no affect on DHS expenditures and workload and is assessed as having no fiscal impact.

Effective Date

The bill takes effect upon signature of the Governor, or upon becoming law without his signature.
