participate in the pilot program. A tenant may participate in the pilot program only if the tenant elects to participate and completes a financial education course.

On or before January 1, 2024, the authority, in consultation with the administrator, shall submit to applicable legislative committees of reference a report concerning the pilot program.

The pilot program is repealed, effective June 1, 2024.

1 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Colorado:

2 SECTION 1. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly
3 finds that:

4 (a) According to the Urban Institute, home ownership is currently 5 the largest single source of wealth building, but in Colorado, a significant
6 racial gap in home ownership rates exists;

7 (b) In 2018:

8 (I) Sixty-eight percent of White households were home owners,
9 compared to thirty-seven percent of Black households and fifty-two 10 percent of Latino households. This is especially problematic because 11 home ownership plays a bigger role in building wealth for communities
12 of color than it does for White households. According to a recent study, 13 home ownership amounts to fifty-three percent of wealth for Blacks and 14 thirty-nine percent of wealth for Whites.

15 (II) The national mortgage loan denial rate for Black applicants
16 was double that of White applicants, at eighteen percent versus nine
17 percent. Among Black and Latino households, the most common reason
18 for denial was debt-to-income ratios. The second most common reason
19 was credit history.

20 (c) Due to traditional credit scoring models, many communities
21 of color are credit invisible or unscorable. Roughly fifteen percent of 22 Blacks and Latinos are credit invisible compared to ten percent of Whites;

1 similarly, thirteen percent of Blacks and twelve percent of Latinos are
2 credit unscorable compared to seven percent of Whites. Credit invisibility
3 and unscorability are barriers to financial opportunity that have adverse
4 effects lasting generations.

5 (2) The general assembly also finds that:

6 (a) Communities of color find it difficult to gain access to credit,
7 especially when it comes to mortgages;

8 (b) For renters, the rental payment is often their single largest
9 credit or contractual obligation;

10 (c) Reporting rental payments is a way to even the playing field
11 and enable communities of color, lower-income households, and residents
12 of rural communities to generate and build credit without taking on 13 additional debt; and

14 (d) Reporting rental payments allows renters to build credit in 15 much the same way that home owners build credit through the reporting
16 of mortgage payments.

17 (3) Therefore, the general assembly declares that it is in the best
18 interests of the state to create a pilot program whereby participant tenants
19 may elect to have their rent payment information reported to consumer
20 reporting agencies and thereby build and improve their credit.
