retiree at the time of retirement.

The bill changes the amount of time that a retired member of the judicial division may perform assigned judicial duties without pay and the amount of a benefit increase such a judge will receive. The bill specifies that a retired member of the judicial division may perform assigned judicial duties without pay for 20, 30, 60, or 90 days each year and will receive a benefit increase equal to 6.7%, 10%, 20%, or no more than 30% respectively of the current monthly salary of judges serving in the same position held by the retiree at the time of retirement.

Additionally, under current law, within 5 years after retirement, a retired member of the judicial division who did not enter into an agreement prior to retirement to perform assigned judicial duties without pay during retirement may enter into such a written agreement within 30 days prior to each anniversary date of retirement. The bill removes this requirement.

2 SECTION 1. Legislative declaration. The general assembly

5 deal with this backlog, the courts need additional judicial officer
6 assistance. Therefore, it is the intent of the general assembly to modify
7 the statute authorizing the judicial department to contract with judicial 8 division retirees, expand the program to enable the department to process
9 this backlog more quickly, and to make an appropriation to allow for the 10 department to contract with more judicial division retirees.

11 SECTION 2. In Colorado Revised Statutes, 24-51-1105, amend 12 (1)(b); and repeal (2) as follows:
