Summary of Legislation

The bill requires that the Senate President and the Speaker of the House of Representatives annually invite the Ute Mountain Ute Tribe and the Southern Ute Indian Tribe, through representatives designated by each tribe’s tribal council, to give an address to a joint session of the General Assembly. The bill clarifies that the date and time of the address will be determined by the involved parties on an annual basis.

Assessment of No Fiscal Impact

Requiring the Senate President and the Speaker of the House of Representatives to annually invite the Ute Mountain Ute Tribe and the Southern Ute Indian Tribe to address a joint session of the General Assembly does not affect the revenue or expenditures for any agency of state or local government; therefore, the bill is assessed as having no fiscal impact.

Effective Date

The bill was signed into law by the Governor on April 11, 2022, and it took effect on August 9, 2022.
