Bill Summary

(Note: This summary applies to this bill as introduced and does not reflect any amendments that may be subsequently adopted. If this bill passes third reading in the house of introduction, a bill summary that applies to the reengrossed version of this bill will be available at <http://leg.colorado.gov>.)

Under current law, every governing body of a municipality that has adopted and enforced a building code after July 1, 2023, is required to adopt and begin enforcing an energy code for residential buildings. The bill creates an exemption for municipalities with a population of less than 2,500 residents from having to adopt and enforce an energy code for residential buildings.

1 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Colorado:

2 SECTION 1. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly
3 finds and declares that:

4 (a) Rural and frontier communities are the most remote and
5 sparsely populated communities in Colorado;

6 (b) These communities have low population density and are
7 isolated from population centers and services;

8 (c) As such, rural and frontier communities have difficulties
9 building housing at an affordable cost for their residents because of the 10 cost of providing materials, infrastructure, and labor to the most isolated 11 areas of the state;

12 (d) Rural and frontier communities are also typically located in 13 depressed or even inverted housing markets, making the cost of building
14 homes in these communities financially unfeasible;

15 (e) Increased building code and energy code regulations create 16 burdens for rural and frontier communities, such as additional 17 construction requirements and specific certifications, which increase the 18 cost of housing in rural and frontier communities; and

19 (f) Established state building, plumbing, and electrical codes are 20 more than sufficient at protecting the health, safety, and welfare of 21 Coloradans who live in rural and frontier communities, and using the 22 established codes will reduce the cost of housing for people in those
23 communities.

24 (2) Therefore, the general assembly further declares that it is in 25 the best interest of the state to exempt rural and frontier communities

1 from additional energy code requirements in order to promote the
2 building of homes and reduce the cost of housing in rural and frontier
3 communities.

4 SECTION 2. In Colorado Revised Statutes, 31-15-602, add (3.7)
5 as follows:

6 31-15-602. Energy efficient building codes - legislative
7 declaration - exemption for certain municipalities - definitions -
8 repeal. (3.7) NOTWITHSTANDING SUBSECTIONS (3) AND (3.5) OF THIS
9 SECTION, A MUNICIPALITY WITH A POPULATION OF LESS THAN TWO 10 THOUSAND FIVE HUNDRED RESIDENTS, ACCORDING TO THE MOST RECENT
11 FEDERAL DECENNIAL CENSUS, IS NOT REQUIRED TO ADOPT AN ENERGY
12 CODE IN ACCORDANCE WITH THIS SECTION.

13 SECTION 3. Act subject to petition - effective date. This act
14 takes effect at 12:01 a.m. on the day following the expiration of the 15 ninety-day period after final adjournment of the general assembly; except 16 that, if a referendum petition is filed pursuant to section 1 (3) of article V
17 of the state constitution against this act or an item, section, or part of this 18 act within such period, then the act, item, section, or part will not take 19 effect unless approved by the people at the general election to be held in 20 November 2026 and, in such case, will take effect on the date of the 21 official declaration of the vote thereon by the governor.
